

Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act (CRRSAA) Funding

On December 27, 2020, the Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act, 2021 (CRRSAA) was signed into law. As part of CRRSAA, universities and colleges across the country were allocated funding through the Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund. Purdue University Global has received and awarded its students monies through HEERF. The fund may cover any component of the student's cost of attendance at Purdue Global or to offset emergency costs that have arisen due to the coronavirus pandemic, such as costs for food, housing, health care (including mental health care) or child care. If a student is deemed eligible, the student has received or will receive a notification from the university. For any questions or concerns, students (or parents) should contact us at studentrelations@purdueglobal.edu.

Dear Student,

On December 27, 2020, the Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act, 2021 (CRRSAA) was signed into law. As part of CRSSAA, universities and colleges across the country were allocated funding through the Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund II (HEERF II). We are writing to inform you that Purdue University Global has awarded you monies through HEERF II.

You may use these funds to cover any component of your cost of attendance at Purdue Global or to offset emergency costs that have arisen due to the coronavirus pandemic, such as costs for food, housing, health care (including mental health care), or child care. It is within your discretion to use these funds for any of these purposes, and, in any event, we hope they do provide some assistance as you continue your educational journey at Purdue University Global during this difficult time.

You may contact the Purdue University Global Student Loan Assistance department at (855) 875-7430 or studentassistance@purdueglobal.edu if you would like to receive guidance on how to apply the funds toward your cost of attendance.

Funds will be distributed directly to you via direct deposit or check based upon the method chosen during your enrollment or first term. Please allow up to 7 days to receive your funding. If you have any questions, please contact us at studentrelations@purdueglobal.edu.

Sincerely,

Melissa Prichard
Title IV Administrator
