ASSOCIATE OF APPLIED SCIENCE IN

EARLY CHILDHOOD DEVELOPMENT

HELP YOUNG CHILDREN GROW TO THEIR FULL POTENTIAL

Develop skills to work with young children from birth through age 8, as well as their families. Students will develop a strong foundational knowledge of young children’s growth, development, and health and nutrition needs, while also gaining the necessary skills to work in an inclusive environment. Purdue University Global’s associate’s degree in early childhood development prepares students to create effective learning environments for young children and help strengthen family and community relationships. Upon graduation, you’ll be ready to take on diverse opportunities ranging from preschool teacher to child care program specialist.¹

Career and Networking Opportunities

INDUSTRY OUTLOOK

- An associate's degree and experience in early childhood development are typically required to become a preschool teacher. Some college may be required to be a teacher assistant in a child care setting.¹
- Employment of preschool and child care center directors is expected to increase from 2020 to 2030.⁸
- About 59,600 openings for preschool teachers are projected each year, on average, over the decade.⁸ Many of those openings are expected to result from the need to replace workers who transfer to different occupations or exit the labor force, such as to retire.⁸

IMPORTANT INFORMATION: PLEASE READ

1 Purdue Global does not guarantee employment placement or career advancement. Actual outcomes vary by geographic area, previous work experience and opportunities for employment. This program will not certify graduates to become licensed teachers, is not intended for individuals who are pursuing a license to teach early childhood education in a public or accredited private elementary school, is not represented as meeting specific state Board of Education criteria for assisting with children and teachers in a public school setting, and was not designed to meet any specific state's requirements for licensure or certification. Purdue Global makes no representations or warranties as to whether the degree or any individual courses meet such requirements. Refer to the University Catalog for additional information.

Please note that some preschool teaching positions require specific state training.

2 Purdue Global does not guarantee transferability of credit. See the University Catalog for the Prior Learning Assessment policy.

3 Purdue Global online associate's degree students who graduated in the 2020–2021 academic year and entered their program with eligible prior learning (transfer, experiential, or credit by exam) credits saved an average of more than $20,000 toward the total degree. Campus tuition and prior learning credit savings vary by location. Savings based on overall cost of completion without prior learning credit. Calculation based on total prior learning credit times standard cost per credit in student's program of study. Individual savings will vary. Calculation includes campus and military students. Purdue Global does not guarantee transferability of credit. See University Catalog for the Prior Learning Assessment policy.

4 Classes count toward a degree if satisfactorily completed. No credits are earned if the student withdraws during the introductory period (3 weeks for new qualifying undergraduate students), which begins day one of the first term. Students who choose to continue their studies at Purdue Global will need to meet specific requirements. Graduate programs not included.

Additional terms may apply to international and non-U.S. citizen students. For further information, see the University Catalog.

6 The University cannot guarantee that students will be granted admission to any future programs. Speak to an Advisor about transfer credit opportunities and see the University Catalog for the Prior Learning Assessment policy.
