Capstone Project

The program culminates in a final capstone project, which gives you the opportunity to apply the skills and concepts you study online to real-world issues in human services.

Degree Concentrations

Focus your human services degree in one of four areas:

- Human Services Administration: Gain the knowledge and skills to work with diverse funding sources, influence policy, supervise staff, and advocate on behalf of those most vulnerable in our society.
- Gerontology: Learn the physical, mental, and psychosocial development of humans during the aging process, addressing how the aging population impacts social policy and program delivery.
- Child and Family Welfare: Study the complexities of child development, family court, and more while learning to assess, evaluate, intervene, and re-evaluate social structures.
- Community Organization and Advocacy: Acquire the knowledge and skills to work as a change agent within the community or specific groups. Learn how to demonstrate the need for change within the community, influence outcomes, drive change, and organize action.
