2022 COMMENCEMENT

October 22, 2022
PRESIDENT’S MESSAGE

Dear Graduates,

Over the past decade, Purdue University has grown dramatically its student body, with now over 100,000 members diligently pursuing the accomplishment you earned today.

Among that great number, there are none we are more proud of than you. When our university set out to add Purdue Global to our educational options, we did not fully foresee how deeply our adult students would enrich our community. We try to challenge and motivate our young students to develop fortitude and persistence, but we would be hard pressed to suggest to them a better example than the determination that brought you to today’s achievement.

Shortly, I’ll be leaving the best job in America. Of the many things I’ll miss, no part is more gratifying than the chance to welcome our newest Purdue Global graduates to the family of Boilermaker alumni. Congratulations—we look forward eagerly to watching your continued success.

Hail Purdue!

Mitchell E. Daniels, Jr.
President, Purdue University

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Kelvin E. Gumbs
Purdue University Global Alumnus, Class of 2021

Kelvin Gumbs is a native of San Juan, Puerto Rico and was raised in Stillwater, Oklahoma. He graduated from Stillwater High School and immediately enlisted in the naval service in August of 2000.

Gumbs earned a Bachelor of Science in Professional Studies from Purdue Global in 2021 as well as an Associate of Applied Science in Small Group Management in 2020. He also attained a professional military education from the Naval War College and National Defense University (Joint Forces Staff College) where he is a 2016 honor graduate and Outstanding Leadership Award recipient (Officer Training Command, Newport, RI).

His enlisted operational assignments include the USS Abraham Lincoln, Fleet Air Reconnaissance Squadron Four, and Carrier Strike Group Nine. During these assignments, he participated in Operations Iraqi Freedom, Enduring Freedom, and Tomodachi. Ashore, his enlisted assignments include the distinguished staff of the chief of naval operations; commander, U.S. Pacific Fleet; chief of naval personnel; and commander, U.S. Africa Command, supporting Operation Unified Assistance.

As a naval officer, Gumbs was assigned to the Blue Diamonds of Strike Fighter Squadron one-four-six where he performed duties as director of administration and legal/educational services officer. He deployed with Carrier Air Wing Eleven onboard the USS Nimitz in support of Operation Inherent Resolve. He served as director of human resources, administration/legal/budget officer, and security manager at Strike Fighter Wing, U.S. Pacific, supporting 24 commands and over 4,500 sailors and civilian personnel.

Gumbs served his last assignment as director of administration (flag secretary) and staff executive officer in Pensacola, FL. In this role, he supported the largest shore enterprise in the U.S. Navy supporting the “Street-to-Fleet” mission, which focused on recruiting and hiring talented civilians. He delivered training and education to transform these civilians into sailors and distributed accession sailors to the fleet to maximize readiness and ensure mission success.

Gumbs is entitled to wear the Defense Meritorious Service Medal, Meritorious Service Medal, Navy Commendation Medal (seven awards), Navy Achievement Medal (three awards), and various other personal, unit, and campaign awards. He is most proud of the unit awards earned at sea.

The awarding of degrees to the candidates’ names in this program is contingent upon the satisfactory completion of the appropriate requirements by each candidate, as verified by the Registrar. The listing of a student’s name in this program, or participation in the ceremony, does not ensure his or her graduation or the award of honors. This list includes only those who registered to participate in the graduation ceremony by September 1, 2022. Academic honors statuses noted in this program are based on the student’s CGPA as of September 1, 2022.

Purdue University Global commencement ceremonies begin with the entrance of the University Mace—carried by the macebearer, who leads the chancellor and other dignitaries onto the stage.

The current mace first appeared at the May 2022 commencement in Indiana. It was constructed by Michael Lorenz, Purdue University Global vice president of academic operations and registrar, in addition to being a self-described “amateur woodworker.”

The mace consists of 18 segments, representing Purdue University Global’s founding in 2018. It is made entirely from locally sourced woods, symbolizing the university’s Indiana heritage. One section is composed of layers of different woods, evoking the diversity of students, faculty, and staff that is a hallmark of the institution and its mission. Three pieces of the current mace are refurbished from the previous mace, a reminder of Purdue University Global’s legacy, which traces its roots to the American Institute of Commerce, a postsecondary school that opened in 1937 to provide training for underserved job seekers in a nation still reeling from the Great Depression.

The tradition of the mace originates from medieval times in England when it was carried by bishops of the church into battle as a protective device. Later, the mace was carried by sergeants-at-arms who were bodyguards of kings and others of high rank. Legislative bodies such as the U.S. House of Representatives and the British Parliament also adopted the ceremonial mace as part of the pomp and circumstance associated with the beginning of meetings. Today, many universities carry a mace to symbolize the importance of commencement and as acknowledgement of the academic process.
HISTORY OF THE BOILERMAKER

Legend of the Boilermaker
An 18-foot, 5,400-pound bronze statue that celebrates the lore and legend of the Purdue Boilermakers now stands next to Ross-Ade Stadium with an inscription that reads: “The year was 1891. A college known for its proud heritage of educating the sons and daughters of the working class began to dominate opponents in football. After a 44-0 thrashing of Wabash College, a headline writer provided inspiration for a most unique nickname. ‘Wabash Snowed Completely Under by the Burly Boiler Makers from Purdue’ chronicled a victory by the ‘Herculean wearers of the black and old gold.’ Never intended as a compliment, the insult appealed to the students of the day. The indomitable spirit of the boilermaker is embodied in the tireless laborer you see before you.

Boilermaker Special
The locomotive design of Purdue's official mascot celebrates the University's renowned engineering programs. The first Boilermaker Special was presented in September 1940 and has been used to announce campus events ever since.

Purdue Pete
Pete's story began in 1940 when University Book Store hired California artist Art Evans to draw a logo. The grinning, muscular icon reflected a boilermaker tradesman with a mallet for molding steel and hat to keep grease out of his hair.

In 1944, the logo jumped from retail to academe, starring in Purdue's Debris yearbook. “Introducing Boilermaker Pete,” wearing a home economics apron among them.

Pete moved from page to personhood on September 28, 1956, at a pep rally before Purdue played Missouri, when student Larry Brumbaugh (ME’57) donned foam rubber padding, football shoulder pads, long black pants, sweater with a P, and a papier-mâché head.

"HAIL PURDUE!"
“Hail Purdue” is Purdue's official fight song. The song was composed in 1912 by Edward Wotawa (music) and James Morrison (lyrics).

BOILER UP!
“Boiler up!” is used as, “Go Purdue,” or as, “Cheer up!” Students also use it to greet each other and to cheer in football games.

This phrase was partly a creation of our former football coach, Joe Tiller, who led Purdue’s football team through one of the most successful periods of Purdue football history from 1997 through 2008. But before coaching at Purdue, he had coached at the University of Wyoming, also known as the Cowboys. During his time at the University of Wyoming, Joe Tiller used the phrase, “Cowboy up,” to cheer up his players. When he started working at Purdue, he wanted a similar phrase to use with the Boilermakers. Therefore, Joe Tiller and his wife, Arnett Tiller, came up with the phrase, “Boiler up.”

However, coincidentally, a very similar phrase has been used decades ago in steam-powered locomotives. When the coal box was hot enough, and the engine was ready to go, the fireman would yell, “Boiler's up,” to let the locomotive engineer and the conductor know the boiler was ready.

Big Bass Drum
Known as the "World's Largest Drum," it stands 10 feet tall on its field carriage and is handled by a crew of four band members with two beaters. The drum draws attention wherever it goes from fans who want their picture taken with the instrument. It still has its original 1921 frame, which is eight feet in diameter and nearly four feet between its two heads.

The Hail Purdue Wall
The Hall Purdue Wall was installed in fall 2014 to commemorate the song’s 100th anniversary. Constructed using glass and brick, the wall is consistent with the rest of the red brick campus architecture. It was decided that the words would be etched onto glass to allow one to see the fight song with the "scenes of Old Purdue" behind it. The wall was strategically positioned near Elliott Hall of Music.
