

Psychology TSAP

BS in Psychology

Upon completion of a Psychology TSAP program, you are eligible to enter directly into advanced bachelor's degree coursework in the Purdue Global Bachelor of Science in Psychology program. Please consult the course guide below to review the courses that will remain once transfer credit from your completed associate's degree has been awarded toward your Purdue Global bachelor's degree.

Courses to be Completed at Purdue Global

Third-Year Courses

Term 1	Quarter Credits
PS200: Introduction to Cognitive Psychology	5
HN365: Psychology of Aging	6

Term 2	Quarter Credits
HW410: Stress—Critical Issues in Management and Prevention	6
Open Elective	5

Term 3	Quarter Credits
PS300: Research Methods I	6
PS311: Ethical Practice in a Diverse World	6

Term 4	Quarter Credits
Open Elective	5
PS330: Personality Development	6

* Purdue Global operates on a quarter-credit system with 10-week undergraduate terms. In general, 1 semester credit is equal to 1.5 quarter credits. A Purdue Global bachelor's degree requires 180 quarter credits.

Fourth-Year Courses

Term 5	Quarter Credits
Open Elective	5
PS370: Health Psychology	6

Term 6	Quarter Credits
PS380: Clinical Psychology	6
PS440: Abnormal Psychology	6

Term 7	Quarter Credits
Open Elective	5
Open Elective	5

Term 8	Quarter Credits
PS450: Case Management in Clinical Settings	6
PS499: Bachelor's Capstone in Psychology	6